O R D E R

On October 6, 1986, Concerned Citizens and Businessmen of Central Kentucky, Inc., ("Concerned Citizens"), by its President, Don Wiggins, filed a letter requesting that it be allowed to intervene in the above-styled case. Concerned Citizens also sought permission to introduce the net profit margin utility rate formula. The organization proposed that it be permitted to intervene though it was not represented by an attorney.

On December 3, 1986, Don Wiggins filed a letter requesting intervention as an individual customer. He also requested permission to introduce the profit margin formula.

Upon consideration of these filings, the Commission FINDS:

2. The request by Concerned Citizens for intervention cannot be considered or granted until such time as their request is filed by an attorney qualified to practice before the Commission.

3. Don Wiggins, as an individual, has filed for full intervention and it shall be granted.

4. Don Wiggins should be given opportunity to present evidence concerning the net profit margin formula.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. The motion by Concerned Citizens for intervention is hereby denied.

2. The motion by Don Wiggins for intervention is hereby granted.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 24th day of December, 1986.
